About Nancy

Suffolk is where I raised my two daughters, both of whom are proud graduates of Ward Melville HS. It's where I work. For the past twenty-two years, I have taught at Stony Brook University, and for the past two and a half years, I have been the chair of the Chemistry Department at Stony Brook. Suffolk is where I built my life. But right now, DC politicians are pushing an agenda that hurts the place we love and the people we care about. To protect Suffolk we have to fix Washington.

With your help, I'll make sure that everyone in Suffolk has quality affordable healthcare. I'll protect Suffolk's waterways, upgrade our clean water infrastructure, and pass legislation to combat climate change. I'll work to pass strong, commonsense gun safety legislation to end the gun violence epidemic. I promise to fight tooth and nail to protect a woman's right to choose. And I'll fight to protect our tax dollars, because we must do more to help Suffolk families.

Nancy has raised over $1.25 Million for the General Election

About the District

In 2017 and 2018, we saw some signs of the blue wave hitting Suffolk County. In 2017, Sheriff Erroll Toulon was the first African American elected county wide, and in 2018, Governor Cuomo carried NY-01. However, Lee Zeldin managed to win by 4 points. 2020 will be the year we flip NY-01, in large part because Nancy Goroff is the Democratic Nominee. Lee Zeldin has never run against someone from Brookhaven, where Nancy is from, which is the heart of the district. As a scientist with local roots, Nancy has the right story to beat Zeldin, a DC politician that failed us in his response to the coronavirus. Coupled with her ability to raise the funds needed to win, we can flip NY-01 blue in 2020.
